Behind the app

- Website at fitness7gym.in with class, trek and plan pages, enquiry capture and the same assistant.
- Admin panel for the owner, admins and coaches: members, plans, staff notes, leads, treks with photos, and announcements.
- Backend with phone OTP login, Google sign-in and offline-first sync, so the app keeps working on a weak signal.

Quotation

The full build comes to ₹2,60,000, a one-time fee covering design, development, testing and launch on both app stores.

Running costs and support

Third-party accounts are opened in the gym's name and paid at actuals, so Fitness 7 owns them. Expect roughly ₹10,000–12,000 in the first year while member numbers are small.

Website and database hosting	Render and Supabase	Free tier to start; ~US$7–32 a month once traffic grows
AI food logging	Photo and text meal logging	Pay per use, a few hundred rupees a month at gym scale

Optional support plan: ₹5,000 a month. Covers bug fixes, app updates for new Android and iOS versions, and up to 6 hours of content or small feature changes each month. The first 30 days after launch are free.
